Chapter 1 by Maria

"Out of my way!" said Rosaline as she pushed past me. "Do you mind?" I shouted back. Rosaline stormed out of the house, not waiting for me as usual. I quickly grabbed the briskly wrapped honey toast and ran after her.

I ate the toast the minute we left the house as i was so hungry. Rosaline didn't say a word to me the whole way. She was stressed out because she had her exams today, i really don't know why she gets so stressed out over it! They're not even that important. Rosaline reached into her school bag and pulled out her science book, she then plugged in headphones and started humming.

We carried on walking, Rosaline humming and me whistling. We had finally got four more streets to walk down and two roads to cross. I stepped onto the road with Rosaline next to me, we both started to cross half way through when suddenly a car came zooming up to us!
